Roles & RESPONSIBILITIES

To maximize your experience in Leadership Greater Waterbury, as well as to set expectations and ground rules for participation in the program, it is important that everyone understand the roles and responsibilities of all LGW participants.

Students are committing to...

- Participation in ten virtual class days from 8:00 AM – 12:00 PM and graduation.
 - Completion of any pre-work or class activities assigned prior to each class day
 - Communication with your classmates, LGW Program Director and LGW Steering Committee plus thorough completion of online surveys after each session.
 - Courtesy including but not limited to signing onto zoom on time, staying focused through the entire class day and respecting each speaker's time with your full participation. Breaks will be included in each class day.
 - Attendance is mandatory and students are expected to attend every class. More than one excused absent may affect graduation status. If an emergency rises, please inform Courtney Ligi at 203-233-9115 or email cligi@waterburychamber.com
 - Class Day Lab Projects – Each class day will incorporate a real-time lab project that reflects the class topic; students will work together via breakout zoom sessions and then present outcomes to the group.

The LGW Steering Committee is made up of past alums and volunteers for the program as well as Chamber staff members.

They are committed to:

- Moderating Zoom calls to assist the students that are learning virtually.
- Providing a stimulating and rewarding Leadership experience for each member of the class from Orientation through Graduation.
- Developing the agenda for Orientation and each workshop day
- Guiding the class through the Leadership process
- Attendance on the day that they have planned for the Class
- Ongoing support of you as a student
